

Retail Matters case study:

Retail Matters is a nationwide campaign celebrating careers in retail and retail property, inspiring individuals working in the sector and the contribution Revo members make by investing and managing the space that enables fulfilling careers all over the country.

Retail places are often the heart of their communities and do so much to promote good jobs. Tell us about the jobs and types of roles available in shopping centres and along with the outreach work undertaken with the community:

Case Study –Centre:

- Name of centre, location
- A lot of roles in retail property are not widely known by the public – can you name some of roles in your shopping centre e.g. centre manager, commercialisation manager, marketers
- For those running retail places – what is the most rewarding part of your job?

Community outreach:

- Can you tell us the outreach work you do on jobs and skills for the community that helps retailers/retail property owners recruit people?
- What are the biggest barriers to people entering this sector?
- Best thing about the retail property sector that people might not know?
- Any advice to people who might be curious about jobs in retail property but not sure where to start?

Please provide picture/media to help illustrate case study.
